

KRISTIN QUINLAN

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Certified Languages
International

All about CEO Kristin Quinlan

Kristin Quinlan joined Certified Languages International \(CLI\) in 1999, ascending to CEO in 2006. Under Kristin's leadership, CLI has become not just a provider of language services, but an advocate for the greater good of comprehensive language access. She served on the executive board of the Association of Language Companies (ALC) from 2010 to 2014 and later co-founded ALC's Advocacy and Standards Committee, a coalition that delivers key legislative successes for the language services industry. Additionally, Kristin served on the board of directors for the Joint National Committee for Languages (raising public awareness about the vital enterprise), as well as the board of 7000 Languages (a nonprofit that invigorates endangered languages).

Condensed Bio

Kristin Quinlan is the CEO of Certified Languages International \(CLI\), a U.S.-based interpreting company founded in 1996. CLI specializes in remote interpreting services in 230+ languages, handling 20,000–30,000 calls daily across every industry.

Connect with Kristin

About CLI

Certified Languages International \(CLI\) is a recognized industry leader that has remained at the forefront of providing remote interpreting services since its inception in 1996. A woman-owned business, CLI was a founding member of the Association of Language Companies (ALC) and among the first to become certified by ASTM F3130's Standard Practice for Language Service Companies. CLI specializes in providing on-demand, remote interpreting services delivered 24/7/365 over phone and video in 230+ languages. As true advocates, CLI raises awareness and reduces barriers for limited English proficient (LEP) individuals by providing superior interpreting services. CLI leads by listening, being responsive, and collaborating with customers to find the best solution to advance the industry and foster equitable language access.

Connect with CLI

